Well done David!

Clonown is very proud of David Flynn, Buggane, who captained the Roscommon minor team to victory in the Connaught Championship recently. On behalf of the team he accepted the Tom Kilcoyne cup. It is years since Roscommon won a Connaught Championship title, so great credit goes to David and his team. In addition to his excellent football skills, David has also been complimented for his media skills.

Water

People in Clonown have been either without water or have had much reduced pressure during the past weeks. A member of the Community Centre Committee contacted the County Council and was informed that the problems were caused mainly by burst pipes. He was also told that a major scheme to improve the supply to Athlone will start shortly and that this will have a beneficial effect on outlying areas.

Mass in the Cemetery

There will be Mass in Clonown Cemetery for all those who are buried there on the evening of Tuesday 15 August. The time will be arranged later.
