Classes in Clonown Community Centre

The Art classes have started and will continue until December. Those attending the classes find them both enjoyable and relaxing. Ann from Roscommon VEC is to contact us about classes in First Aid. Keep Fit continues on Thursday nights. All are welcome to join in the keep fit classes.

Road Safety

Reflector jackets, provided by the Gardaí, were given free of charge to people after Mass on Sunday. It is essential that anyone walking or cycling use these jackets, particularly while walking or cycling late in the evening or after dark. There are still some available if anybody else needs one.

Young Rising Star

Congratulations to Rachel Shine who recently won the talent competition Shooting Stars, organised by Eugene Murphy at Shannonside Radio. This competition aims to showcase up and coming talent in the Shannonside area. Rachel won despite strong competition from competitors from the various counties represented. Her prize, valued at €3000, consisted of a day's recording with a band at a recording studio in Ballygar. Rachel's talent was evident during the past number of years as she sang with the local choir so it no surprise that she is captivating a wider audience.

Variety Show

The variety show, staged over two nights recently in Clonown Community Centre in aid of the church and Clonown Community Site Project, was a great success. Our gratitude to Moore and Clonfad Drama Group and people from Clonown and Drum who gave their time voluntarily. Congratulations to Clonown School Band, Sarah Seery, Ann Hynes, Ciara Costello, Tommy Curley, Cornafulla Dance Group, Laura Wall, Pat Watson, Mike Nash, Fr John McManus, Emer Dunning, Rachel Shine, John Gaynor (Ferbane), Patrick Whe-lan, Maura O'Brien, Ivan Colleran, Marcellan Grehan and Padraig Egan who provided a very high standard of entertainment and to those who worked behind the scenes, Paddy Feehily, Benny Murray and Padraig Killeen, to the MCs, Tom O'Brien and Thomas Gil-hooly. A special word of thanks to the organising committee who created a warm welcoming atmosphere. The general consensus was the there should be similar nights in the future. In total €4008 was raised, half of which goes to each organisation.

Harvest Thanksgiving

A harvest thanksgiving ceremony takes place to-day, 31 October, in Clonown church

Tax Relief Forms for Charity

Don't forget to fill in the tax relief forms. If you require any further information please contact Ann Dunning (087 2261096)

Table Quiz

The next fundraising venture, a table quiz, will take place on Thurs-day 11 November in the Shamrock Lodge Hotel. This should be another fun night. People are asked to make up teams of four and to come along on the night.

Baby Boy

Congratulations to Kevin and Michelle Naughton on the birth of their son Dáire James.

Bernadette Dunning RIP

Our deepest sympathy to the Nell Dunning and her family, Balli-naculla, on the recent death of Bernadette in New Jersey.

Kitty Dunning RIP

Our deepest sympathy also to the Dunning family, Drumlosh on the death of Kitty Dunning.
