There will be lots of fun provided by talented musicians, singers and actors from Clonown, Moore and Drum and further afield. We hear that the craic will be great. On each night there will be a raffle for very valuable prizes, including a bicycle, hampers, fuel etc. Afterwards there will be a cup of tea, giving you a chance to chat about the show. Ask your friends to come along also.

Anniversary Masses

All Saints Day (1 November): Mass in Clonown church at 8 pm.

Rosary in Graveyard: The rosary will be recited in the graveyard on Sunday 13 November, immediately after 11 am Mass.

Promoting local small businesses

Having noticed flyers and business cards recently on the notice board in the church placed by people who are available for work I thought it might be a good idea to have a section in the newsletter to let people know who is available for work. This would have a two-fold purpose—it would let people who wanted work done know where electricians, carpenters etc are available and it would also provide work for people with these skills living in the locality. If anyone wants to use the newsletter for free advertising, please contact Rosaleen (087-7600128)

New Baby Girl

Congratulations to Dermot and Marie Keenan (nee Gavin, Ballinaculla) on the birth of their daughter, Chloe.

Kitty Dillon RIP

Our deepest sympathy to Mary Shine, Newtown, on the recent death of her aunt, Kitty Dillon.
