Evening Classes

Due to lack of interest there will be no First Aid classes this year in the community centre. There are sufficient numbers for an Art class, but the Roscommon VEC has not contacted us yet about the availability of a teacher. As there are only seven weeks left to Christmas it is likely that these classes will not take place until after Christmas. Those interested in the Art classes will be contacted if there are further developments.

Hallowe'en

Hearing of all the disturbances caused by Hallowe'en activities in other areas it is great to see that children and young people in Clonown and the surrounding areas enjoyed the occasion without any problems. The children 'trick or treating' in colourful costumes were a welcome sight and there was even an added bonus of songs from some of the children.

Variety Show

Congratulations to all those involved with the recent variety show. The Pastoral Group and the committee of the Community Site Project wish to thank all the acts that took part and especially Moore Variety Group who helped with the stage, sound and comedy acts. A special mention to all the children who sang, danced and played music and of course the 'Clonown Chancers' who staged a very entertaining comedy sketch. Clonown is not short of talent. Also, a special word of thanks to the MCs, all the back-stage workers, the Fás workers who prepared the stage and hall, those who donated prizes for the raffle, the volunteers who looked after the car parking and those who prepared the refreshments. Next month there will be further information on the amount collected on the night.

Table Quiz

A table quiz in aid of church funds and the Community Field Project will take place in the Shamrock Lodge Hotel on Thursday 22 November at 8 pm. There will be tables of four and the fee will be €10 per person. If you are not part of a team of four come along anyway and the committee will be able to fit you in.

November Mass for the Holy Souls

There will be a Mass for the Holy Souls on one of the Saturdays in November. The date has not been fixed but it will be announced beforehand.

Dublin City Marathon

Congratulations to Carol Naughton, Buggane and Kenny Macken, Oldtown, who completed the Dublin City marathon recently.

Sr Mercy Watson, RIP

Our deepest sympathy to the Naughton family, Buggane and Pat Fallon Oldtown on the recent death of Sr Mercy, a former teacher in Summerhill College.
